

Celebrating the life of
DEACON SAMUEL WOODBERY
December 5, 1932—January 5, 2021

Dad

My heart is overflowing with the loving things you've done.
I really need to tell you that I'm grateful for each one...
There's no one quite like a dad to make your dreams come true. Dad, there's no one anywhere more wonderful than You!

Love You Dad...

Reflections Of Life

DEACON SAMUEL WOODBERRY

On January 5, 2021 at 6:37 pm, the heavenly shades of night were drawn, another scene ended, the book was closed and another Faithful Servant called Home.

Deacon Woodberry departed this life with the full assurance, he fought a good fight, he finished his course and above all he kept the faith. He was surrounded by his loved ones.

Samuel Woodberry was born December 5, 1932 in Clarksville, Texas to Lemuel and Eliza Woodberry who preceded him in death. He graduated from Terrell High School in Denison, Texas and enlisted in the Army where he served and fought in the Korean War. Sam received several medals and served his country well. Sam loved to travel, eat, helping lots of people and spending time with his family. He knew everybody and everybody knew him.

After relocating to Wichita, Kansas he worked at Copeland until 1994, and held other jobs until he retired. Later in his life he became a member and Deacon of Tabernacle Church of God in Christ under the leadership of the late Superintendent Elder Edgar Moore. Sam stayed an active member in Church under the leadership of Pastor Jonathan Platt, until his health started failing.

Sam was preceded in death by his parents: Lemuel and Eliza Woodberry; brothers: John and Oliver James Woodberry; sister, Bobbie Berry; son, Thomas Woodberry; great-grandson, San Quavae Le'Sure; 2 step-daughters: Charlotte McGill and Mary Jo Ricks.
