

Walter James Waddles, 75, of Wichita Falls, passed away Friday, July 20, 2018.

The family will receive friends between 6 and 8 p.m. Friday, July 27, 2018 at Owens & Brumley Funeral Home of Wichita Falls. Funeral services will be held at 11:00 a.m. Saturday, July 28, 2018 in the chapel of Owens & Brumley Funeral Home. Interment will follow at Burkburnett Memorial Cemetery under the direction of Owens & Brumley Funeral Home of Wichita Falls.

Walter was born on December 7, 1942 in Denison, Texas to Samuel Joseph and Margaret (Smith) Waddles. He graduated in 1961 from Terrell High School. After graduation, he enlisted in the United States Air Force, retiring after 20 years. Upon retirement from the Air Force, Walter went on to work with Civil Service for the next 20 years. Walter was a loving husband, father and grandfather and will be missed dearly.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Sammy and Margaret Waddles; the love of his life, his wife, Onita Waddles; his brother, John Henry Waddles; his sister, Ramona Brooks; his aunt, Cora Bell; and several beloved family members and in-laws.

He is survived by his sons and daughter, Bobby Dinwiddie, Francelle Perry, and Bernard Waddles all of Wichita Falls; his sisters, Margaret Harris of Detroit, Michigan, Naomi Booker of Norman, Oklahoma, and Helen Kimbrough and husband Nathan of Detroit, Michigan; his granddaughter and light of his life, Destiny Waddles; and numerous nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Sign Guestbook