Husband's Tribute

Who can find a virtuous woman? For her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. Favor is deceitful, and beauty is vain; but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised.

Proverbs 31

On march 3, 1979, you made this vow . . . "I Charles, take you Cary, to be my wedded husband, to have and hold, from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death do us part."

I'll always love you, my friend, the mother of my children, my honey, "AND FINGER POINTING PROPHET!!"

We've shared a lot of happiness throughout our married life, these 17 years have meant so much to me; to have you as my wife, I found a virtuous woman, a good thing when I found you Charles.

Thanking you for keeping your vow, love always

Mother

To my mom whom I love so dear. I know you're gone yet you're here. Here in my thoughts, my spirit, and my heart. We will always be together. We will never be apart. Although I cry, my inner-man is glad. I will always remember the good times we had. For your favorite saying I will remember forever.

"Tell the truth and shame the devil!"

You were a soldier standing tall. With all your strength, you did not fall. You taught me much, you raised me well. And with the help of God, I shall not fail. You stood the test, you held on strong. Although you did not have too long, you stood on the Word and did not take down. And now I believe a new home you have found. You lived a blessed and prosperous life. You ran the race and fought the good fight.

There is no more pain. There are no more tears. Now you don't have to suffer, you don't have to fear. I know in my heart, you are in heaven. Now you can see him face to face. Mom I know that things sometimes seemed rough, but God took your hand and said:

Enough! No more sleepless nights shall be, I'm taking you home to be with Me.

Love always,

Your daughter Tosha

Appreciation

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair; perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say; perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever the part.

"Old enough to Know, Young enough to Do"

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearance.

2 Timothy 4:7-8
